

Super-curricular collegiate outreach work

For more details in addition to those provided by the links, please contact the relevant college, as this is not Faculty run outreach work.

Trinity College's Beyond the Classroom series contains, among other subjects, two workshops on English and one on Linguistics.

Your pupils can sign up here: <https://oxford.onlinesurveys.ac.uk/trinity-talks-registration-form-3>

Date	Subject	Topic
22 April	English	Virginia Woolf and Modernism in Literature
6 May	Linguistics	Introduction to Linguistics: How Languages Change
10 June	English	Fandom and Fictional Characters in Late-C18th and Early-C19th Theatre

The Queen's College's International Book Club

is a chance for your pupils to explore foreign language books which have been translated into English with other like-minded, literature-loving students. No knowledge of the original language is required to take part! For more details, please visit their website: <https://www.queens.ox.ac.uk/international-book-club-sixth-formers>

The next meetings are:

Wednesday 24th March 2021, discussing A Whole Life by Robert Seethaler, translated from German by Charlotte Collins

Wednesday 14th July 2021, TBA

All sessions are free to attend and will take place at 8pm GMT on Zoom.
